Suppose Mr. Johnson should persist o the bitter end in declining, as he is now reported to decline, to use the patronage in his hands for the benefit patronage in his hands for the benefit of Seymour and Blair; suppose he declines to upset the loyal State governments in the South and to interfere in the counting of their votes for Grant,—what becomes of the so-called Democratic ticket nominated on Mr. Wade Hampton's platform? Beaten is no name for it. And it looks more and more every day as if this were the President's programme. Else what does he mean by surrounding himself with Republicans like Schofield, Evarts, Randall and Seward, who are all for Grant, and by offering appointments to men and by offering appointments to men like Cox and Delano, of Obio?

THE Democrats modestly propose a thousand majority for themselves here this Fall. They tell us they have counted noses and have the figures to show for it. Very well, then gentlemen, why don't you sit down and be easy? What's the need of all this anxiety and dramming up of the faithful? You ought to be

"NIGGER EQUALITY."

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph publishes letter from one John Dupree, a negro whose address is Irwinton, Wilkinson county, Georgia, wherein the blacks are advised to vote the Democratic ticket. In commending the letter, the Telegraph says:

"He gives the best of counsel, and offers upon invitation, to address the colored people anywhere in Middle Georgia that may destre to hear him.

"Upon the first favorable occasion, we have no doubt the Democrats of this county will be glad to hear him, and will invite him to address a public meeting at Macon. We hope, in the course of the canvass, that the Democrats, white and black, will give us a good barbecue, where there shall be a plenty to cat of that which is good and wholesome, and then we shall hear all these matters talked over at our leisure."

Ho, ye West Virginia Democrats, who are not willing to have your names written on the militia roll with a black man, lest he should be drafted instead of you, what do you think of this? Here are the chivalrous Democracy of Georgia proposing not only to sit under HON. R. L. BERKSHIRE, of Monongalia. the teachings of a "nigger" orator, but to eat out of the same dish and drink from the same bottle with "niggers" promiscuously! Remember, you are expected to do whatever your Southern brethren do. In this the programme at the Grass Run barbecue, Harrison county? Is this the the feast Col. Ben Wilson is preparing for the Harrison County Chivalry?"

"Uncle Gabe" at Clarksburg, ought to brush up his oratorial powers. He might be called on suddenly to go to Grass Run to make a speech! Who need of all this anxiety and dramming up of the faithful? You ought to be satisfied with a thousand. Can it be that some troublesome Daniel has been interpreting the hand writing on the wall mene, mene, tekel, upharsin! Is Belshazzer beginning to quake?

The hugest joke of the season is the rejoicing of our Democratic friends over the Confederate victory in Kentucky—as if anybody ever heard of Kentucky going any other way. A Democratic victory at the "Cross-roads!" What a glorious and as-raive will gain power and repuddate

Trade is improving, and the market pariakes of a buoyant tone, which is influenced by the rapid rise in gold, which is equal to the advance on all imported goods. Worsted goods, woolen shawls and fine fancy cassimeres and coatings, are the goods most sought for, and in domestic they are offered at comparatively low rates, especially shawls, which have opened surprisingly low. At Jas. Rogers & Co's., shawls have been opened to-day at $500 for best No. 22 assorted, and $675 for No. 18, 67½ by 135 inches. In high colors this shawl opened last night at $825, being a reduction of $1050 each shawl, and the No. 16 drabs and blue mixed which last season sold at $25 are now down to $375, which is about gold rates before the war. Of course the trade is purchasing freely at the established figures, and numbers of certain makes have been all taken already. The cotton trade is still a little quiet, because the supply in the jobbers hands is found ample for the present wants, but a good demand is expected ser the close of the month. ent wants, but a good demand is ex-pected ere the close of the month.
